History

Frank X. Tolbert's life-long passion for chili inspired him to write his world-famous book "A Bowl of Red" 53 years ago. Frank was a Texas historian who traveled the perimeter of Texas in a Jeep with his son, Frank 2, in 1955. He was a columnist for the Dallas Morning News for 37 years, wrote 8 books, and founded the Terlingua Championship Chili Cook-Off in 1967. He joined forces with Frank 2 in 1976 to open the first Tolbert's Restaurant in Dallas, with daughter Kathleen helping manage starting in 1977. Kathleen, with her husband Paul Ryan, selected Grapevine's historic Main Street as the new home of Tolbert's in 2006. The tradition continues as Tolbert's Restaurant & Chili Parlor features classic southwestern cuisine with our signature Bowl of Red, using the same recipe developed by Frank X. Tolbert and his son.
